What to expect at our worship:

Singing: One of the unique things about us is that all of our music is "a capella". God said "Be filled with the Spirit, speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord." (Ephesians 5:18,19). Oh what praise God receives from the hearts of men instead of instruments!

Prayers: "For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and His ears are open to their prayers" (I Peter 3:12). We offer several prayers to God, praising, thanking, bringing our requests to His throne, and casting our cares upon Him because He cares for us.

Lords Supper: During Sunday worship we partake of the bread and drink of the cup that IS the blood of Christ. This spiritual feast is the remembrance of what Christ has done for us on the cross. It was told to the early disciples, "Take, eat, this is my body which is broken for you: do this in remembrance of Me... This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me. For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lords death until He comes". (I Corinthians 11:24-26).

Offering: We follow the Instructions given to the first century church by the anointed Apostles to take a collection for the needs of the saints. "On the first day of the week let each of you lay something aside, storing up as he may prosper" (I Corinthians 16:1,2).

Preaching: Our preachers do not have titles given to them by men. They are not called 'Pastor' or 'Reverend' Jesus said; "Reverend no man", and call no man on earth your 'Father'. He does not wear clothes that set him apart; the Bible says all Christians are a priesthood. The sermon will be from one of the faithful men present, who has studied the Word of God diligently. You will find that we like to quote the Scriptures and follow the patterns that God has prescribed in the New Testament.

Invitation: We close each service with an invitation for obedience to the gospel. When the church began on Pentecost in 33 AD the Jews who heard Peter speak were 'cut to the heart' by the Word spoken by God through Peter. They said, "Men and Brethren, what shall we do?" Then Peter said to them, "Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins" (Acts 2:37,38).

About the church that meets here:

We believe that the Holy Spirit guided the men who wrote the Bible (John 16:13). We also believe that there is great benefit from the reading and understanding of these scriptures (II Timothy 3:16,17). 717ese blessings are numerous, Including eternal life as a reward for following the Word (John 17:2,3). Jesus started "His" church on the day of Pentecost In 33 AD. The church He spoke of and died for He described as something "spiritual". He used the words "Kingdom of God" Interchangeably with "Church". Jesus said you cannot see the Kingdom of God, and you cannot say, "Here it is, or there it is, for the Kingdom of God is within you". As persecution arose against the church at Jerusalem, Christians went everywhere and were multiplied by the preaching of the - word (Acts 4:4, 8:1). Churches began to arise allover the world. They all had one doctrine -that of Jesus, the doctrine He gave to the Apostles after receiving it from the Father (John 16:5-15, Ephesians 4:3-6). All of these churches were not linked together with some earthly head. Jesus said He was the Head of His Church. The early churches did not have "reverends" or "priests" as in the Old Testament Covenant. The early churches were not named after denominations that men have created. They did not worship in man's traditions, making worship vain (Matthew 15:8-9). Jesus and the Apostles did not teach pre-millennialism doctrine so we do not. We believe that Jesus' dying on the cross was intentional and that He came to set up the church (Matthew 16:18). It was not an afterthought (Ephesians 1:3-5). We believe God intended for His Word to be spread around the world and be passed from generation to generation without being changed. We believe that He set up a simple pattern for believers to follow and that this pattern can be easily found and followed. It just requires the desire to leave out man's additions and follow only His inspired Word. We endeavor to be Christians and wear only that name, for it glorifies Him and not another.

If you are interested in studying the Bible, let us know. We offer Bible correspondence courses and home Bible studies.
